The Nineteenth Annual

The Manhasset Women's Coalition Against Breast Cancer (MWCABC)

MWCABC is an all-volunteer, charitable organization whose mission is to fund innovative research, increase awareness through education and provide support services to those with breast cancer and related diseases.

Since its founding 19 years ago, the MWCABC has awarded over $3 million in research grants to prominent research institutions. Last year's recipients were The Feinstein Institute for Medical Research at the North Shore-LIJ Health System, Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory and Columbia University Medical Center.

The Coalition's Outreach Program provides emotional and financial assistance, resource information and support services to women and families coping with these diseases.

Geralyn Lucas

Geralyn Lucas is an award-winning TV producer, author, speaker, and women's health advocate. Her first memoir, Why I Wore Lipstick to My Mastectomy, is the brash and brazen tale of her bout with breast cancer at age 27. Her story became an Emmy-nominated Lifetime Original movie and an off-Broadway hit. Now, 18 years later and recurrence free, Lucas feels there is more to say about life post cancer. In her new book, the candid and perceptive author talks about motherhood, marriage, body image, self-worth, family, and the loss of loved ones as she ultimately seizes living over living in fear.
